

The Overview

One of Davenport's Finest Mansions - "The Overview" is a classic Georgian Colonial Revival Mansion in Davenport, IA., designed by Clausen & Burrows in 1901. Built for August E and Julia Steffen. Steffen was a dry goods merchant, director of The Davenport Savings Bank, and vice president of First National Bank.

The Overview offers sweeping panoramic views of Davenport and the Mississippi! Amazing curved glass windows, second story balcony, split stairway in entry, many original features - carved buffet with lion heads in dining room, stunning plaster details in main floor rooms. Home is currently under restoration.
